Here's Rundown On Capital Rumors, Reports, Maybes

By Jerry Kluttz

A Capitol Hill politico is betting on this long-range job parlay:

Kluttz

John A. Carver Jr. to resign as Interior Under Secretary to run for governor of Idaho; Charles F. Luce, administrator of Bonneville Power to succeed him, and later Luce to be elevated to succeed Stewart L. Udall as Interior Secretary. Western members of Congress are known to be speculating over the shift which they say would take a couple of years to complete.

Reports: Joseph W. Barr, chairman of Federal Deposit Insurance, may be reassigned to either Treasury Under Secretary, a vacant post, or to the White House to replace Larry O'Brien who handles legislative problems for the President and who is anxious to resign. An ex-member of Congress, Barr formerly handled legislation for the Treasury.

G. Mennen Williams, Assistant State Secretary for African Affairs, is a possibility for appointment to direct the Peace Corps. . . . David McGowan, a Charlotte, N.C., attorney who formerly served in the Government, may return to a key post in Treasury.

Commerce's official photographer was assigned to take new pictures of Eugene Foley, the Small Business administrator. This has led to fresh speculation that he will replace Franklin D. Roosevelt Jr. as Commerce Under Secretary.

Half a dozen top treasury appointees plan to leave around April 1 when Secretary Douglas Dillon's resignation is slated to become effective. Five key posts already are vacant. The new Secretary will be handicapped by a new and inexperienced staff. The career staff there will be hard put to make the transition smooth.

National Association of Internal Revenue Employees has appealed a Federal District Court decision here that dismissed its claim that IRS special agents should have collective bargaining rights.

National Federation of Federal Employees has filed formal charges of unfair labor practices against Comptroller of the Currency James J. Saxon. It accuses the Comptroller of refusing to recognize its local in his New York office.

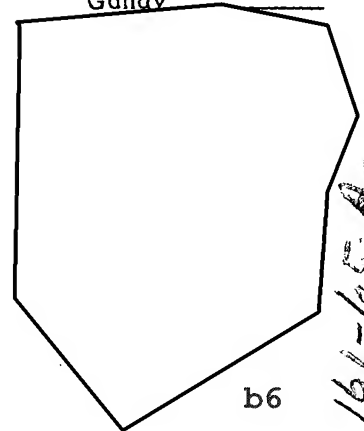

Army civilians here were upset yesterday by rumors that upwards of 10,000 of them might be moved elsewhere over the next several years.

The Army Materiel Command at Gravelly Point; the Supply & Maintenance Command near Seven Corners, and Combat Development Headquarters at Ft. Belvoir, were among activities mentioned for transfer.

AMC and SMC had hoped to be assigned a "little Pentagon" building in the Washington area but funds for the structure were dropped from the budget. There has been talk of moving some activities to the Olmsted Air Force Base, Pa., which is being closed.

But Defense officials couldn't have been more emphatic in slapping down the reports as "premature and inconclusive." Up to now, they explained, the moving rumors have been "just talk" although they admitted a study is being made of Army, AF and Navy units that could be moved from this area.

Dillon Reported Planning to Quit By Month's End

By the Associated Press

Secretary of the Treasury Douglas Dillon plans to resign no later than March 31, it was learned today.

Dillon is counting on a vacation of four or five months before returning to his Wall Street investment banking business.

He has served 12 years in government—as an ambassador, as a diplomatic troubleshooter and as undersecretary of state. He has been secretary of the treasury since January, 1961.

Speculation has centered on Donald C. Cook of New York, president of American Electric Power Co., as Dillon's successor.

Dillon was quoted as saying: "I am leaving at the end of March. I don't know who my successor will be. I have given plenty of notice; I am going on vacation in April."

I stated I remembered the man and I thought he had been arrested the other day out in California.

Why? is.

Mr. Dillon continued that wha [redacted] wanted him to tell me was that apparently a Bureau Agent in San Francisco wanted to go around and see [redacted] about the arrest, and since [redacted] got into the matter at [redacted] request, [redacted] did not see the Agent and referred the matter back to [redacted]. b6 b7C

Mr. Dillon stated [redacted] wanted me advised that any information the Bureau wanted, he, [redacted], would give directly to me or one of our Agents. Mr. Dillon stated that is why he was calling, in case the Bureau received a report that Sutrow would not talk to the Agent.

I advised Mr. Dillon that if there were anything we wanted to get, I would have our New York Office see [redacted]. I stated we would advise our San Francisco Office that if they want anything to let us know here in Washington and we will get in touch with [redacted] in New York. b6

[redacted] in [redacted] office, in [redacted] absence [redacted] was instructed that our San Francisco Office should be advised that if they want anything regarding [redacted] they should not contact [redacted], but should let the Bureau know and the Bureau will get in touch with [redacted] in [redacted]. [redacted] was further instructed that I should be advised before any contact with [redacted] in New York. b6 b7C

The Brookings Institution
1775 Massachusetts Avenue, N.W.,
Washington, D.C.

The following investigation was conducted on the dates indicated by Special Agent [redacted] at the above location:

On January 7, 1975, [redacted]

[redacted] advised that he has known the appointee, C. DOUGLAS DILLON, since 1966 when DILLON became associated with the Brookings Institution as a member of the Board of Trustees. In that capacity, DILLON attends twice yearly meetings of the Board of Directors. These meetings last for two days and involve a social dinner meeting and the usual conversation. [redacted] stated he has no knowledge whatsoever which would cause him to believe that Mr. DILLON would be incapable of conducting an impartial inquiry, noting that recent press reports indicate Mr. DILLON has been appointed to a panel of distinguished Americans to investigate the dealings of the Central Intelligence Agency (CIA). [redacted] stated that DILLON's character and integrity are unquestioned and that the only reservation that he would have concerning DILLON's participation in an investigative panel stem from his own lack of knowledge concerning the specific charge of the president to the panel and his lack of knowledge of the intimate details involved. Based on his own observations, [redacted] stated that DILLON is a person of good judgment and knows of no reason that he should specifically not be recommended to participate in an investigative panel appointed by the president. b6 b7C

On January 8, 1975, [redacted]

[redacted] advised that he has known the appointee since 1961 when DILLON was Secretary of the United States Department of the Treasury. At that time GORDON was a member of the President's Counsel on Economic Affairs and subsequently was Director of the Bureau of the Budget from 1962 to 1965, during which time he had frequent dealings with DILLON relating to the business of the government. [redacted] stated that DILLON possesses an extremely judicious quality of mind and in fact possesses the type of character and make-up required of a superb judge. [redacted] stated that DILLON always weighs all evidence presented to him in any matter requiring his decisions and stated that he has no knowledge of any of Mr. DILLON's previous activities within the intelligence b6 b7C communities. He stated Mr. DILLON is active in the Counsel of Foreign Relations which is a more or less honorary group of distinguished Americans who hold three or four monthly meetings and rotate the chairmanship of such discussions. He stated he has no reason whatsoever to question DILLON's impartiality or objectivity and that he would certainly recommend him to serve on any important investigative panel appointed by the President of the United States.

On January 8, 1975, [redacted]

[redacted] advised that with regard to character, integrity, reputation and loyalty, the background and career of the appointee, C. DOUGLAS DILLON, speaks for itself. [redacted] stated that he first met Mr. DILLON while [redacted] was [redacted] at the [redacted], approximately 1957, when Ambassador DILLON returned to the United States from France. He stated he worked very closely with Mr. DILLON until early 1961 and then did not see much of him while he was Secretary of the Treasury. He stated that in the last five years he has seen him perhaps ten times, notably at the semi-annual meetings of the Board of Trustees of the Brookings Institution of which Mr. DILLON is Chairman of the Board. He stated DILLON is an extremely judicious, unbiased individual who approaches all problems confronting him in a cautious, ~~un~~balanced manner. [redacted] stated that DILLON is an extremely distinguished public figure whom he thinks would perform an outstanding service to the American public in any governmental assignment given him. b6 b7C

[redacted] advised he has known the appointee since 1961 when he was a member of the Kennedy Administration as Secretary of the Treasury. He states he still sees the appointee occasionally in addition to the semi-annual board meetings of the Brookings Institution but that mainly his relationship with DILLON is a professional one. He stated that DILLON's character, integrity and reputation are outstanding beyond any question and that on the basis of his own knowledge he would expect DILLON to perform outstanding service to the American public and to be extremely impartial in any of his dealings in an investigative panel of the type noted in recent press releases concerning the CIA. b6 b7C

The following investigation was conducted by SA
[redacted] on January, 8, 1975:

[redacted]
[redacted]
to Peru and former Minister and Deputy Chief of Mission to Paris, France, advised that he first became acquainted with the appointee, C. DOUGLAS DILLON, in 1953, when DILLON was Ambassador to France. During that time, [redacted] was the number two man in the American Embassy in France and worked closely with Mr. DILLON until 1956, when [redacted] left to become Ambassador to Peru. He stated that he has great confidence in Mr. DILLON'S general ability, integrity, loyalty and reputation and stated that he has no bad habits. [redacted] noted that there is a representative from CIA in every embassy and how much is known by the Ambassador is always a variable quantity. CIA matters are not normally discussed with anyone but the Ambassador by the Chief of Station and in any regard, [redacted] is not the least bit suspicious with regard to any connections DILLON may have had with CIA, which would render him less than most impartial in ^{participation} advice in any inquiry conducted by the Presidential Panel. He stated he would certainly recommend the appointee for inclusion to such an investigative panel as indicated in recent press reports.

b6

[redacted]
advised that he has been associated in the past with Mr. DILLON in Government service, stemming from the time when SCHULTZ was Director of the Bureau of the Budget. He stated that DILLON is a relatively conservative individual, noting that however, he is extremely judicious in all of his dealings and would certainly be impartial toward any problem presented him for a decision. He stated, to his knowledge, DILLON is certainly a person of good character, integrity and reputation, whom he would recommend for any position of trust and confidence with the U. S. Government.

The following investigation was conducted by SA
[redacted] on January 8, 1975 at Washington, D. C.:

[redacted],
advised that he first became acquainted with Mr. DILLON in 1960, after the election of President KENNEDY. [redacted] was then the Assistant Secretary for Congressional Relations at the Department of the Treasury and maintained his acquaintance with DILLON after he subsequently went to the Federal Deposit Insurance Corporation (FDIC), from 1961 to 1963. Mr. DILLON left the Government service in January, 1965, after President JOHNSON was elected and [redacted] noted that he has maintained a friendly relationship with Mr. DILLON ever since that time. DILLON has the highest reputation in all regards with no question as to his loyalty or associates. [redacted] noted that two presidents, namely, EISENHOWER and KENNEDY, had implicitly trusted DILLON and noted that DILLON was one of President KENNEDY'S Advisors on a continuing basis during the Cuban Missile Crisis.

b6

b7C

He stated that, it is his opinion, DILLON is a top-notch choice for a position on the Panel appointed by the President as indicated in recent press reports and noted that, when an individual deals in diplomatic and state affairs, he certainly has business connections with the Central Intelligence Agency. [redacted] stated, however, that he was not aware of anything which would cause Mr.
DILLON to be less than impartial, noting, however, that taking one's background into consideration, no one could be absolutely impartial in such an inquiry. He stated that Mr. DILLON, who is a person of extremely judicious quality, would act in the best interest of the United States and that nothing at all would deter him from moving in that direction. Closing, he stated he would highly recommend Mr. DILLON for any position of trust and confidence within the United States Government.

[redacted] General Manager, advised that the appointee, Mr. C. DOUGLAS DILLON, has been a member of the club since 1940 and has made frequent use of the club whenever he was in town. He noted that many current members reside out of town and rarely appear at the club, which he described as a neutral location, where individuals in business and Government can meet on a non-contraversial basis and that, in fact, members rarely come to one another's attention unless they become guilty of some ungentlemanly conduct, which would detract form the decorum of the club. [redacted] stated that he has no knowledge of any relationships that Mr. DILLON may have with any other members, but certainly he has no reason to question the objectivity or impartiality of Mr. DILLON and stated he knew of no reason DILLON should not be recommended to an important position of trust and confidence within the Federal Government.

read the first and second time and that the Senate proceed to its immediate consideration.

The PRESIDING OFFICER. Without objection, it is so ordered.

The Senate proceeded to consider the joint resolution.

The PRESIDING OFFICER. The joint resolution is open to amendment. If there be no amendment to be proposed, the question is on the third reading of the joint resolution.

The joint resolution was read the third time.

The PRESIDING OFFICER. The joint resolution having been read the third time, the question is, Shall it pass?

The joint resolution (H.J. Res. 262) was passed.

Mr. ROBERT C. BYRD. Mr. President, I ask unanimous consent that the action of the Senate today in passing Senate Joint Resolution 62, which is a companion measure, be vitiated, and that the measure be indefinitely postponed.

The PRESIDING OFFICER. Without objection, it is so ordered.

Mr. ROBERT C. BYRD. Mr. President, I move to reconsider the vote by which the Senate has just passed House Joint Resolution 262.

Mr. BAKER. Mr. President, I move to lay that motion on the table.

The motion to lay on the table was agreed to.

ORDER FOR RECESS UNTIL 10 A.M. TOMORROW

Mr. ROBERT C. BYRD. Mr. President, I ask unanimous consent that when the Senate completes its business today it stand in recess until the hour of 10 a.m. tomorrow.

The PRESIDING OFFICER. Without objection, it is so ordered.

ORDER TO RESUME CONSIDERATION OF S. 662 ON TOMORROW

Mr. ROBERT C. BYRD. Mr. President, I ask unanimous consent that at 10:30 a.m. tomorrow the Senate resume consideration of the pending business, S. 662, Calendar Order No. 143.

The PRESIDING OFFICER. Without objection, it is so ordered.

ORDER FOR RECOGNITION OF SENATOR LEAHY ON TOMORROW

Mr. ROBERT C. BYRD. Mr. President, I ask unanimous consent that on tomorrow Mr. LEAHY be recognized, after the two leaders have been recognized under the standing order, and that he be recognized for not to exceed 15 minutes.

The PRESIDING OFFICER. Without objection, it is so ordered.

ORDER FOR RECOGNITION OF LEADERS REDUCED TO 5 MINUTES

Mr. ROBERT C. BYRD. Mr. President, if it is agreeable with the distinguished minority leader, I ask unanimous consent that the time of the two leaders, under the standing order on tomorrow be reduced to 5 minutes each.

Mr. BAKER. Mr. President, I have no objection.

The PRESIDING OFFICER. Without objection, it is so ordered.

PROGRAM

Mr. ROBERT C. BYRD. Mr. President, the Senate will come in at 10 o'clock tomorrow morning. After the two leaders have been recognized, each for not to exceed 5 minutes, Mr. LEAHY will be recognized for not to exceed 15 minutes.

At 10:30 a.m., the Senate will resume consideration of Calendar Order No. 143, S. 662, a bill providing for the increased participation by the United States in the Inter-American Development Bank, the Asian Development Bank, and the African Development Fund.

It is the hope of the leadership on both sides of the aisle that the Senate will complete action on that bill tomorrow.

Rollcall votes will occur. As to any other measures that have been cleared for action—and, hopefully, there will be some that will have cleared the 3-day rule by tomorrow—we may be able to take action on them by unanimous consent. If such be the case, we shall do that.

Mr. BAKER. Will the majority leader yield?

Mr. ROBERT C. BYRD. Yes.

Mr. BAKER. I thank the majority leader.

Mr. President, I take a brief moment to thank the distinguished senior Senator from New York (Mr. JAVITS) for his concurrence in this arrangement. I talked to him on the telephone from the cloakroom a few minutes ago. He had been under the impression that we would proceed to the Foreign Military Sales Act tomorrow. I rather suspect he was prepared to proceed with that tomorrow, being the ranking member of the Foreign Relations Committee. Senator JAVITS, in his typical gracious way, has agreed to try to rearrange his schedule and his preparation to be here tomorrow to manage for our side the bill that the majority leader has identified, which is now pending before the Senate.

I asked the majority leader to yield so I could express my gratitude to the distinguished Senator from New York, who has made it possible for us to proceed in this way without any difficulty or delay.

Mr. ROBERT C. BYRD. Mr. President, I thank the able minority leader. I join in thanking the distinguished Senator from New York (Mr. JAVITS) for his cooperation and characteristic courtesy.

RECESS UNTIL 10 A.M. TOMORROW, MAY 17, 1979

Mr. ROBERT C. BYRD. Mr. President, if there be no further business to come before the Senate, I move, in accordance with the order previously entered, that the Senate stand in recess until 10 o'clock tomorrow morning.

The motion was agreed to, and at 5:34

p.m., the Senate recessed until tomorrow, May 17, 1979, at 10 a.m.
